Inserted are several of the Genuine Broadside Bills of Christenings and Burials. In the extraordinary diseases and in the comparison between certain years, will be found the material for a long, an entertaining and a valuable labour. For instance, "Grief" seems generally to have secured some victims, and others are placed under "Blasted and Planet," while "Headmould Shot," "Wolfe," "Calenture," "Purples," "Swine Pox," "Rising of the Lights," "Frighted," "Spleen," "Stronggullion," and other perplexing disorders recur more or less frequently.
